ATTENTION

For Orders Outside Greece Refund All Expenses Incurred By The Client. All returns should be requested by email before you send your item(s) back to us to allow for easy identification and prompt processing. We can only accept returns from the country to which an order was originally shipped, for example, orders delivered to Greece must be returned from Greece. The return is not free of charge (import and shipping fees will be charged at your own expense). Customs, duties and other fees applied from countries outside the E.U may be charged to the customer directly and may not be refundable when an item is returned. Packages returned without necessary return information, without a proper return authorization label will not be accepted by us. Shippers may follow specific rules and may discard such packages or consider them unclaimed or rejected.*

Please note that the international shipping costs that C-THROU.COM provide do not reflect the cost of return shipping from countries outside Greece. It is the responsibility of the customer to enquire about the cost of return shipping from their country back to Greece, as this fee is in no way covered by C-THROU.COM. For further information, please contact our customer care team at info@c-throu.com*

You can also request the return of the product by using any other courier service at your own responsibility and expense.*

Refunds are made to your bank account. For this reason, please fill in the following.
